Updates – 2015

Detailed exhibitor information is available at www.kansasstatefair.com. Exhibitors should carefully read and review all general rules and livestock requirements, and rules pertaining to each area entered. Grand Drive entries are due JULY 15, 2015. Entry forms need to be submitted and paid in full online, or postmarked by July 15th and sent to:

Kansas State Fair
Attn: Competitive Exhibits Dept.
2000 N. Poplar St.
Hutchinson, KS 67502

- Schedules
  Barns scheduled to open Thursday, September 10 at 4:00 p.m.
  Goat check-in Friday, 9 a.m. – noon
  Beef, Sheep, Swine check in Friday, 9 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Showmanship – Friday, September 11
Senior showmanship followed by junior showmanship in all species
Meat Goat showmanship 1:00 p.m.
Swine showmanship 2:30 p.m.
Sheep showmanship 4:00 p.m.
Beef showmanship 5:30 p.m.

- Crossbred market hogs
  Crossbred market hogs will be combined into one division. All crossbreds will show together, separated by weight – Light Weight, Middle Weight and Heavy Weight - with classes split evenly at the discretion of the Swine Show Manager.
• Purebred 4-H/FFA market hog show
The 2015 hog show will continue to be a pedigree show.
Hog classes are as follows: Duroc, Hampshire, Yorkshire, Dark AOB (Spotted, Poland China, Berkshire), Light AOB (Landrace and Chester White), and Crossbred.
“Any purebred barrow/gilt that fails the DNA tests for stress gene, parentage verification or breed purity will forfeit all premiums and awards sponsored by the NSR and Team Purebred. Showmanship standings, however, will not be affected by failed test results. These results will be published by the NSR with pedigrees being pulled from all females.”

• To better accommodate the increasing number of entries, an additional division has been added to the meat goat show.

• The fee for late entries to the Grand Drive has changed from $10/head to $25/head, so please enter on time.

• Touch-up clippers for sheep and goats is allowed. New rule is stated as follows:

  Lambs must be slick shorn with uniform wool length not to exceed .20 inch from knee and hock joints up at time of arrival. There will be no shearing of sheep allowed on any part of the grounds. Touch up clipping with scissors, hand shears, and cordless clippers is allowed. No blocking/trim tables are permitted for sheep anywhere on the grounds. Violation will result in disqualification of animal.

  Same verbiage for meat goats, except .375 inch trim, and reference to meat goats.

• Registration numbers for breeding animals in youth livestock shows MUST be listed on entry forms.

• Updated the horn rule on meat goats:

  Current rules states: “HORNS: Goats are suggested to be dehorned. However, if horns are left they must be clipped and rounded.”

  New rule: “Goats are suggested to arrive without horns. If horned, the horns must be tipped and rounded (not less than the diameter of a dime at the end). Tipping and removal of horns is not allowed on the grounds and will result in disqualification.”

Livestock Show Exhibitor Checklist

Prior to your arrival at the Kansas State Fair
- Read all General Rules and Regulations, Animal Health Regulations, and Special Rules for the animal/breed you are exhibiting.
- Go to www.kansasstatefair.com and click “Competitions” to check for important information and updates.

Animal Health & Livestock Check
(Located east of the Fairgrounds on Severance St)
- Livestock entering the grounds must be accompanied by a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI/health paper) issued within 30 days before exhibit, and the CVI must be available, upon request, to officials of the KDAH and/or Fair management. See General Rules for requirements for “Livestock Originating in Kansas” and “Livestock Originating from Other States”. Remember to pick-up your CREDENTIALS PACKET.
- All livestock, except aviary, rabbits, and dogs must go through Livestock Check-in set up by Kansas Department Agriculture Division of Animal Health. Present health paperwork AND get it stamped by KDAH with approval prior to entering the Fairgrounds.

Pick up Credentials
- Please pick up exhibitor passes, parking hangtags, and other tickets paid for when you submitted your entries. A packet of your credentials will be available for pick up at livestock check-in.

Unload at Respective Barn
- Enter at Gate 11 (except horses, enter at Gate 10 and miniature horses and ponies at Gate 6), proceed to the assigned barn, and promptly unload into designated stalls. Please be respectful of all others and follow guidelines which allow 30 minutes to unload before parking in designated area.

Trailer Parking
- After you have unloaded, trailers should be parked in one of the free trailer parking areas located in Public Parking Lot A, north of State Fair Road; and Lot C, east of Plum Street. Livestock trailers are not allowed to park in the ticketed area of the grounds.

Check-In
- Check in with your superintendent to get your stalling assignment. Read exhibitor information for check in procedures and times.

Release Times
- Youth livestock shows - Will be released first Sunday of Fair at 3:00 pm.
- Open livestock shows - Out of state exhibitors will be released at 1:00 pm on last Sunday, all others will be released at 3:00 pm. Please check with your show manager for details and information.
